

German Language Courses for Exchange Students

During the semester breaks, preparatory German courses are offered to international students. During the semester, accompanying courses are held. Please find below examples of the types of courses offered.

Preparatory language courses ('Winter / Summer Academy'):

The preparatory courses last for 4 weeks and are held in August and January/February respectively. Students can participate in intensive German language courses, cultural courses, and in workshops and excursions. The cost to attend the Academy for exchange students is currently € 465.

To register, students have to send an email to zimmer@verwaltung.uni-mannheim.de.

Accompanying language courses:

The International Office also offers special courses for exchange students throughout the semester. The registration fee is € 15 per course. Every student can register for up to three accompanying courses. A maximum of 25 students per course is permitted. Online registration for accompanying courses takes place during the week before lectures start and the first week of lectures.
