

BSc International Business, Finance and Economics with/without Industrial/Professional Experience (IBFE)

First Year – 2017/18

Recommended Reading List

This reading list is designed to give you an insight into the reading material you can expect to cover during your first year courses.

Some costs may be incurred for books but, where possible, texts will be made available in the library (which we would encourage all students to use) or via digital formats. There may be an opportunity to purchase second hand books but please also bear in mind that sometimes the suggested reading may change.

Course Code	Credits	Course title	Suggested reading
Semester one
BMAN10501	10	Financial Reporting	Weetman, P., (2016), Financial Accounting – An Introduction, 7th edition, Prentice Hall International
BMAN10931	20	Financial and Digital Innovations in International Business	Coggan, P. (2009) The Money Machine: How the City works, revised and updated edition, Penguin books
ECON10221	10	Financial Reporting	CORE project's book "The Economy". This is available as a free e-book and will be published in hard copy for the first time on Sep 21st by OUP
Full year
BMAN10780	10	Academic and Career Development	Cottrell, S (2013)The Study Skills Handbook London: Palgrave Macmillan Clegg, S.R., Kornberger, M & Pitsis, T.S.(2015) Managing and Organisations: An introduction to theory and practice (4th Edition) London: Sage
AND
ECON10061	10	Introductory Mathematics	(1) Jacques, I. "Mathematics for Economics and Business", Prentice Hall, 2009 (Sixth edition). (2) Renshaw, G. "Maths for Economics", Oxford University Press, 2009 (Second edition). (3) Wisniewski, M. "Mathematics for Economics", Palgrave Macmillan, 2013 (Third edition). (4) Asano, A. "An Introduction to Mathematics for Economics", Cambridge University Press, 2013.
OR
ECON10071	10	Advanced Mathematics	ECON10071 Advanced Mathematics 2nd Edition, Pearson Custom Publication Compiled by Mario Pezzino